I think the proposed settlement is a bad idea.

0) The definition of Windows Operating System Product appears to be whatever Microsoft wishes it to be.

1) The Proposed Final Judgement ("PFJ") doesn't take into account Windows-compatible competing operating systems.

2) The PFJ contains misleading and overly narrow definitions and Provisions.

3) The PFJ fails to prohibit anticompetitive license terms currently used by Microsoft.

4) The PFJ fails to prohibit intentional incompatibilities historically used by Microsoft.

5) The PFJ fails to prohibit anticompetitive practices towards OEMs.

6) The PFJ as currently written appears to lack an effective enforcement mechanism.

Please register my opposition to the Proposed Final Judgement.

Thank you for your time.
